National War College Class of 2023:

On behalf of LTG Mike Maples, USA (Ret), President of the NWC Alumni Association, I would like to extend a warm welcome to you and your families to America's War College, The National War College.

As a student, you will receive full privileges and rights of all the alumni, and a reduce rate for life time membership during your school year. That includes attending various seminars on hot topics, featuring Alumni, NWC faculty and experts from inside and outside the beltway. These are offered when classes are not in session. With a Life Membership you will enjoy a life time access to the NDU library, easily a $750 value.

We support your Class's activities; such as receptions, sports equipment, OKTOBERFEST, Jim Thorp Days, Spouses Club, various writing awards, including the prestigious $1,00.00 Trager Writing Award, Alumni Scholarships for dependent children of life members, and a new Pillsbury Scholarship award to be granted the first time during your tenure. We have a host of other programs during the school year. When you become a life member of the NWC Alumni Association, your children entering college or in college can apply for one of our Merit Scholarships.

We are the source of the NWC mementos that you may purchase for yourself or for family and friends. As a member of the Alumni Association, you will receive a 5% or 15% discount on most purchases made. One of the first purchases you will make is your red class polo shirt to show your Class spirit at sporting events and other red shirt casual days. We are your source for Class yearbooks and Alumni directories after you depart NWC. We coordinate promotions/retirements for alumni, and assist with current students.

We invite you to visit our website (currently being updated) and to get to know us better. You can order items from us on line, or calling us directly, see what is happening with alumni, and to order books written by alumni and faculty. www.nationalwarcollege.org. Note: At this time our web site is being revamped and updated.

Come by and visit the Rough Rider Store. We are located on the ground floor in Room G20. We look forward to serving you.

Sincerely

Ike Puzon, CAPT, USN, retired, Class of 94
