

National War College Alumni Association

8 July 2026

National War College Class of 2027:

On behalf of the National War College Alumni Association (NWCAA) and our Board President, Rear Admiral (Ret.) Richard Jaskot, it is my pleasure to welcome you and your families as you begin this transformative year at the National War College. The Alumni Association is committed to supporting you throughout your time as a student and well beyond graduation. Our goals are to foster lasting connections among students, alumni, faculty, and the broader National War College community while providing programs and services which enrich your professional and personal experience.

For many of you, your first interaction with the Alumni Association will be through the Rough Rider Store, where you can purchase National War College apparel and memorabilia. Throughout the academic year, however, you will see the Association actively supporting a wide range of College activities. We proudly sponsor student social events, provide support for athletic programs, assist the National War College Spouses Club, and recognize academic excellence through our annual writing awards. We also administer the NWCAA Pillsbury Scholarship Program, which provides educational scholarships for the children and grandchildren of eligible alumni.

As a student—and later as a graduate—you will be invited to participate in Alumni Association educational programs, distinguished speaker events, and social gatherings. We aim to provide lifelong opportunities for professional development, intellectual engagement, and meaningful connections with fellow alumni, while offering access to leaders and subject matter experts from across government, academia, industry, and the military. Following graduation, the Alumni Association also serves as a resource for coordinating promotion, retirement, and other milestone ceremonies held at Roosevelt Hall.

As a current student, you are eligible to become a Lifetime Member of the National War College Alumni Association at the reduced rate of $300. Lifetime Membership provides numerous benefits, including access to portions of the National Defense University Library, a 15% discount at the Rough Rider Store, invitations to exclusive alumni events, and the opportunity to remain connected with the National War College community throughout your career and beyond. To learn more about the Association, upcoming events, membership benefits, and alumni programs, please visit www.nationalwarcollege.org.

We also invite you to stop by our office and the Rough Rider Store, conveniently located on the ground floor of Roosevelt Hall across from the gym. We look forward to meeting you and supporting your National War College experience.

Respectfully,

Mike Prosser
